Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job classification, as well as bachelor’s, graduate, post graduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from schools accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) or any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:

- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
- New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)

College coursework is defined as credit hours leading to a bachelor’s degree or higher.

2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above accreditation associations may be accepted if a regionally accredited school* considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant’s bachelor’s degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor’s degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term “regionally accredited school” refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the six regional accreditation associations listed above.

Announcement Date: March 17, 2010
Revised Date: October 2, 2019

JOB INFORMATION
The Financial Support Worker I is a permanent, full-time position with the Department of Human Resources. Positions are located throughout the state. This is entry-level to advanced social work in the public assistance, food stamp, child support, or work and training services programs. Employees in this class review and determine initial and continuing client eligibility for public assistance, food stamp, child support services, work and training services, or medical assistance benefits determination and entitlements.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS
• Bachelor’s degree from an accredited* four-year college or university in any major

NOTES
• Applicants may apply for this position during their last semester of college; however, applicants will be required to submit documentation verifying completion of the Bachelor’s degree to the hiring agency prior to beginning work.
• Applicants may use a small calculator that performs basic functions during the examination.

EXAMINATION
• Open-Competitive to all applicants.
• A Written Multiple Choice Exam will comprise 100% of the final score for the open-competitive register.
• The Written Multiple Choice Exam will measure the applicant’s knowledge of the English language to include grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure; ability to read and comprehend written materials such as correspondence, memorandums, and polices and procedures manuals; ability to add, subtract, multiply, and divide; ability to file documents; and the ability to plan/organize work to include scheduling appointments and tasks.

HOW TO APPLY
• Complete an Application for Examination Form available at www.personnel.alabama.gov, the above address, or any Alabama Career Center Office.
• Apply on-line, by mail, or by fax. Applications will be accepted until further notice. The State Personnel Department is not responsible for late receipt of applications due to mail service or faxing malfunctions.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

*Please refer to the back of this announcement for complete information on State Personnel’s policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.
Except for pretest information provided by State Personnel to all applicants, you should not directly or indirectly obtain information about examinations. If you do, the State Personnel Director may do several things. One, you may not be given an examination. Two, you may be disqualified after an examination. Three, your name may be removed from a register. Or four, your name may not be certified from the register. (Rules of the State Personnel Board, Chapter 670-x-9). According to the Code of Alabama, 36-26-47, a willful violation of exam security is a misdemeanor. Any person who is convicted of this type of misdemeanor will be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in State service for a period of five years and, if the person is an officer or employee of the State, will forfeit his or her office or position.

If you know of anyone who has violated this policy, you should contact the Examination Manager at the State Personnel Department.

Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012 will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job classification, as well as bachelor’s, graduate, post graduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from schools accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) or any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:
   - Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
   - Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
   - Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
   - Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
   - New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
   - Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)

   College coursework is defined as credit hours leading to a bachelor’s degree or higher.

2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above accreditation associations may be accepted if a regionally accredited school* considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant’s bachelor’s degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor’s degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term “regionally accredited school” refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the six regional accreditation associations listed above.

*Please refer to the State Personnel Department website or call us at 334-242-3389 for complete information on our policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.
Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012 will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

Basic Abilities Test (BAT)

Effective July 1, 2017, APOSTC adopted the ACT WorkKeys Assessment as the official Basic Ability Test (BAT) for all applicants for Law Enforcement Officer employment and certification. The ACT WorkKeys Assessment/BAT is currently offered at all of Alabama’s community colleges in the Workforce Development Program. Administration schedules and guidelines vary by location so applicants should contact their preferred community college to get details regarding test administration. A list of community colleges and contact information is included on the APOSTC website listed below.

Applicants must submit a copy of their BAT results with their applications in order to be placed on the register. There are two exceptions for applicants who are not required to take the BAT: (1) Applicants who possess an Associate’s degree or higher, and (2) Applicants who are already APOSTC certified (This includes applicants who are required to complete the Refresher training for reinstatement of his/her certification). Applicants with an Associate’s degree or higher must submit a copy of their diploma or transcript; if you do not submit proof of your degree, your application will not be accepted. For applicants who are APOSTC certified, you must include your APOSTC certification number and issue date in the Professional License or Certificate section on your application.

Frequently Asked Questions

- What is the BAT? BAT stands for Basic Ability Test. APOSTC has adopted the ACT WorkKeys Assessment as the official Basic Ability Test (BAT) for all applicants for Law Enforcement Officer employment and certification.

- What sections comprise the test? The BAT is comprised of three skill areas: 1) Applied Math, 2) Graphic Literacy, and 3) Workplace Documents (understanding memos, notices, policies, and other written text). No prior knowledge of law or law enforcement is needed to answer the questions. A prep course called Police Exam 3Rs is available online for law enforcement reading, writing, and math. (This study material is not developed or endorsed by the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles or SPD; it is only a suggestion of study material available online and does not guarantee success on the exam.)

- Where can I take the BAT? Individuals who do not possess a valid ACT WorkKeys Assessment/BAT may test at any Alabama community college within the State. Applicants should contact their preferred community college for scheduling and other related information.

- When should I take the BAT? You must successfully complete the BAT before you can be placed on the register for Probation and Parole Officer, Trainee. Applicants must attach a copy of their BAT results to their applications in order to be placed on the register.

- When will I know my score? The community college will provide you with a copy of your BAT results, and you should attach a copy of the results to your application.

- How much does the BAT cost? The standard fee to take the BAT at all Alabama community colleges is currently $45 ($15/section). The fee is payable to the community college and is required prior to testing.

- What if I do not pass a section of the BAT? Should you fail any section of the three-segment test, you will be allowed to re-take only that segment of the test for an additional fee of $15 per segment.

For additional information, go to the APOSTC website: www.apostc.state.al.us, and click on “ACT WorkKeys Assessment Adopted as Basic Ability Test (BAT).”
